

AGATA TUSZYŃSKA
Wiejska 9 m.28 00-480 Warszawa Polska
Tel. Fax. 482 - 621 92 74

David Roskies
375 Riverside Drive#4D
New York, NY 10025

Warsaw, September 20, 1994

Dear David ,
Dear Shana;

Agata and I have gotten your letters in the same day. All the pictures are wonderful. I only wonder why Agata's pictures are much nicer. Isn't she nicer than I?

We were about to go to Paris but -as you know- I am bad girl who work too much. We will go before the winter this year. Instead we went to Cracow and Lodz; Agata had her presentation for her readers, mostly women, those who are members of "Twoj Styl" women's club. She was wonderful and very well received. Agata talked about herself only for three hours, for the next hour she signed her books. Not only her last book about Singer but also others, including her two poetry books. In Cracow as well as in Lodz there was a lot of flowers for Agata. One red rose I even received, I think that was a gesture of mercy.

Women of Lodz gave us a gold- fish, it wasn't the one called Wanda but the Polish one. The legend has it, that if you make a wish, the gold-fish would listen to you and put your dreams into life. There were too much wishes that she hardly survived the way from Lodz to Warsaw.

For the last two days Warsaw has celebrated Amos Oz. We went to pay tribute to his talent on Sunday evening at cultural attache of Israel Embassy. His last book "Black box" has been published in Poland. Yesterday he signed his books, but not that many then Agata in Lodz and Cracow.

During his stay in Warsaw he has visited the same places then you and Shana. Do you know that his father was born in Vilnius and his mother in Rowne? Agata said Amos Oz is the one of a kinde, the type that she will fall in love with him. But he is too small, even that Oz is much higer than Henry. (This is a lie!)

Henry is coming to town. As you can imagine half of the city is going underground except for the coming Saturday when all will participate in the grand opening of ELLE magazine, the Polish edition. The French magazine is joint-venture with Twoj Styl .

We would love to see you but it doesn't look like it will happen this year of 1994 but we hope to see you in 5755. Happy New Year.

Love to all of you

Ewa & Agata if you please ,or Agata & Ewa

a. 