Dear David:

It was--as always--a great pleasure to see you. And we accomplished quite a bit, I think.

You and Joyce will soon be happily working on the finishing touches. Meantime I want just to put on paper our agreement about royalties. If you countersign and return the enclosed copy of this letter it will serve as an amendment to your contract on one point: instead of a hardcover royalty of ten percent of the list price escalating as specified in clause 21a, it is agreed that we will pay a royalty of 10 percent of the net price of the first 2500 copies sold at regular rates, 12.5 percent of the next 2500 copies, and 15 percent thereafter. Your signature at the bottom of this letter is sufficient to register your agreement to this change.

With warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

Margaretta Fulton
