

Puritans among the Indians

Accounts of Captivity and Redemption, 1676-1724

Edited by Alden T. Vaughan and Edward W. Clark

"An exceptionally readable introduction to literature which is not only a significant source for colonial history and ethnography but also a revealing illustration of the Puritan religious vision." — Church History

John Harvard Library
Belknap

$7.95 paper

The Culture of Time and Space, 1880-1918

Stephen Kern

"A most valuable and inventive book, one that will surely be consulted as a model for future study on the large area of the relation of culture and technology." — American Historical Review

$8.95 paper

Winner of the 1984 Ralph Waldo Emerson Award of Phi Beta Kappa

Against the Apocalypse

Responses to Catastrophe in Modern Jewish Culture

David G. Roskies

"Eloquent and moving . . . daring and comprehensive . . . what Mr. Roskies has accomplished in Against the Apocalypse documents a virtually unknown chapter in the history of the refusal of Jews throughout the ages to surrender."

— New York Times Book Review
$9.95 paper

Gender Politics

Ethel Klein

"Gender Politics is a must for every feminist bookshelf. Whether you are a scholar, student, or activist this book is critical for understanding women's changing role in the political process."

— Eleanor Smeal, President,
National Organization for Women
$7.95 paper

Glimpses of the Harvard Past

Bernard Bailyn, Donald Fleming,
Oscar Handlin and
Stephan Thernstrom

This happy combination of literary essay and history provides insights into a past still important in the twentieth century. It will quickly take an honored place on the shelves of Harvardiana.

$15.00

America's Struggle against Poverty, 1900-1985

James T. Patterson

This new edition features an expanded preface and an added chapter that brings Patterson's history up to date.

"This is perhaps the best, and certainly the most useful, book on American attitudes toward the poor published in twenty-five years. . ."

— Journal of American History
$9.95 paper

The Urban Crucible

The Northern Seaports and the Origins of the American Revolution
Abridged Edition

Gary B. Nash

"This book is a major reinterpretation of urban life in eighteenth-century America . . . a masterful synthesis of the economic, social, and political history of prerevolutionary America's three largest cities."

— Journal of American History
$35.00 cloth; $9.95 paper

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

79 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

American Historical Review

Can you get the Kern paperback for me at discount?