Dear David,

Thank you for the quick turnaround. I find your paper a fine contribution to my volume and gladly accept it. Two small changes I would suggest on page 3 enclosed. First is to start the second paragraph simply with "Kishinev..." and second, does Lewin quote verbatim Bialik's verse? Or does he adapt that verse? If he quotes it verbatim perhaps your sentence should read "with this famous line from Bialik." If he adapts it, would you add Bialik's verse to note 5.

Many thanks to your wife for the delicious meal enhancing the good cheer of friendship.

Cordially yours,

Geoffrey Hartman

P.S. A subcontract from Blackwell should reach you before May 1st.
