David --

I am sure you meant to email me Sam Kassow's contact info, but all I got was your name, title and telephone with no message. Could you clear up the mystery?

Also, I thought you'd be interested to hear that I got a call yesterday from a woman in Great Neck who is on her shul's Yom Hashoah planning committee. She remembered the excerpt from "Night Words" that appeared in my article in the fall issue of JTS Magazine and called for another copy of the article. It sounds like she's well on her way to getting the full text from CLAL for her synagogue's commemoration event.
