

Dear Prof. Kostics!

Ron called me again last night. He begs you to make a decision on ordering food for Shabbat today before 5 p.m. maximum. The earlier — the better. Tomorrow the Shabbat begins very early — at 15:30, and they won't have time to cook for us should we ask them the very last minute.

Please discuss this issue with Dr. Fishman when you see him, or let me know your own opinion in case you won't see him before your class (he must be at the Dorms around 3 p.m., rooms 32-33).

Thank you for your consideration!

All the best,

Sonyia
