re: The Ordination of Women

Dear David:

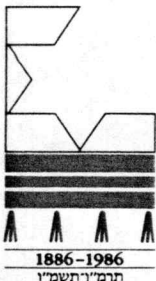

As you know, the Seminary is publishing the papers written by members of the faculty on the subject of The Ordination of Women. Your paper has been accepted for inclusion in this volume. I regret the somewhat formal nature of this letter, but I would like to confirm our understanding with respect to the publication of your paper in this volume as follows:

1. The captioned volume will be published and distributed by KTAV and will be copyrighted in the name of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

2. You have agreed to allow the Seminary to use your paper in this book, it being understood that the Seminary may edit and revise all or part of your paper in consultation with you and with your approval. Your paper has already been submitted, and you have agreed to review the page proofs with Dr. Simon Greenberg, the editor of the book, as soon as we have received them from the publisher.

3. You warrant and represent that this paper is your own work and that it does not violate or infringe any copyright or proprietary right of any other person.

4. You will receive two free copies of the book as soon as it has been published and you will, of course, have the right to purchase additional copies of the book for your own use at the same discount the Seminary receives from KTAV.

A CENTURY OF ACHIEVEMENT

If you are in agreement with the foregoing, would you please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to me. Certainly, if you have any questions, please feel free to give me or Dr. John Ruskay a call.

Very truly yours,

Ismar Schorsch

The above is agreed:
