

Remarks

1)

1. Significance of tales told to children, or for children, or? Value for children?
2. Simplistic.
3. What point was there to the inclusion of Samson among the Judges? Was Samson a judge? Answer on page 3<sup>d</sup> is not convincing.
4. What do you mean? Personal? Non-exaggerated? Surely not "non-mythic"
5. Yows not foils but moving points, Formal. Typed. Already and consciously symbolic.
6. Ambiguity as a function of religious symbolism, in and of itself. Consider the angel as the means of conception. Consider the pun. Consider (anachronistic but not so much, remembering the Greek Socrates) Maimonides, the Arabic school, angel as emissary, notion, sexual response. Consider angel as mysterious "man of god," who, unrevealed, reveals.
7. What did they see?
8. The very process of birth.
9. What for God's sake is the role of the formula?
10. Notice that the "adding style" often results in disjunction: uneven equation of independent clauses, unrelated, or disparate in time-sense.
11. Difficult and intriguing. And not analyzed in your paper.
12. Compulsion? I don't think so.
13. No sexuality at all? Honey from the carcass of a bull, uncleanness, & this is not sexual?

14. So, and if this is sexual, explain relevance to plot etc. Samson, remember, pulls down 2 pillars at the end, etc etc
15. See #13. "Why have you come up against us?" (erection, etc.)
16. Question of Inversion - the psychology of the neurotic.
17. Jaw - bone. Word - weapon. The words of a fool will slaughter.
18. A nonsense, jach-the-ripper boast. See #17.
19. Burst limits of personality? or fill out skeleton of prophecy? Samson's strength lying in his non-recognition of the mission set out for him.
20. Classic? How? When?
21. The judge is never part of the judged. The strong man is strong out of ignorance, the wise man wise out of sadness, the fool a fool out of perfect knowledge, the weakling weak out of perfect wisdom,...
22. Tragedy? Be careful
23. See Roman Jakobson on Riddles.
24. Sexual? Not a virgin? Delilah a virgin?
25. What is the role of repetition
26. Blind, Between 2 pillars. Almost naked. Hair gone but growing again. Not sexual?
