SECOND GENERATION CONFERENCE

May 27-29, 1984 • New York City

To the Second Generation—

Yours is a privileged generation: you remember things that you have not lived; but you remember them so well, so profoundly, that every one of your words, every one of your stories, every one of your silences comes to bear on our own. You are our justification.

*Elie Wiesel
Chairman, United States Holocaust
Memorial Council*

Organized by the International Network of Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors, Inc.

FIRST INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHILDREN OF JEWISH HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

Three days of meetings, plenary sessions and workshops devoted to the deepening of our knowledge of the Holocaust, to a greater understanding of its impact on the contemporary world, and to establishing contacts among children of survivors and local Second Generation groups.

- A demonstration of our commitment to the Legacy which we accepted in Jerusalem in June 1981
- An affirmation to the world that the Holocaust must not and will not be forgotten
- Scholarly presentations and educational programming
- Workshops on organizing Second Generation groups
- Artistic, cultural and social events
- Activities for the third generation

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE of the International Network of Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors

As the heirs of the Six Million Jews who perished during the Holocaust, and as the sons and daughters of those who survived its horrors, we pledge ourselves to forging our future by remembering our past.

The International Network of Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors links and unites Second Generation groups and individual children of Holocaust survivors throughout the world. We are committed to the oneness of the Jewish people, to solidarity with the State of Israel, to world peace, and to the fundamental principles of universal freedom, justice, democracy and equality. Our central goals are to represent the shared views and interests of children of Holocaust survivors, to perpetuate the authentic memory of the Holocaust and prevent its recurrence, to strengthen and preserve our spiritual, ideological and cultural heritage, to fight all manifestations of anti-Semitism and other forms of racial, ethnic or religious hatred, and to raise our collective voice on behalf of all human beings, Jews and non-Jews alike, who suffer from discrimination, persecution and oppression anywhere in the world.

The conference will begin with a plenary session on Sunday morning, May 27th, 1984. Sunday afternoon and Monday will be devoted to workshops and panels on the following subjects:

Education, curriculum development, psychological and sociological issues, awareness groups, video- and audio-taping of survivor testimonies, political topics, philosophical and theological questions, and leadership training for Second Generation groups.

One evening will be devoted to a major Jewish cultural program. On Tuesday, there will be a working meeting of the International Network which will include the election of new officers. An art exhibition, comprised of works by children of survivors, as well as numerous other exhibits, will be on view throughout the conference.

Other major events and activities are still being planned and will be announced at a later date.

This conference is open to all children of survivors and others who identify with our statement of purpose.

Most of the events will take place at the Graduate Center of the City University of New York, 33 W. 42 St., and at Town Hall, 123 W. 43 St.
