

reconstructionist rabbinical college

CHURCH ROAD and GREENWOOD AVENUE
WYNCOTE, PENNSYLVANIA 19095
(215) 576-0800

May 7, 1985

To: Scholars
From: Nancy Fuchs-Kreimer
Re: Final Update for Poets' Conference

Enclosed you will find a final Schedule and Curriculum, along with some materials written by our poets. I think you will find these materials very interesting and they will increase your enthusiasm for our meeting. The excitement here in Philadelphia has been great.

Please plan to arrive on Sunday directly to the YM and YWHA at Broad and Pine Streets in Center City Philadelphia. It is a short cab ride from the 30th Street Amtrak Station. If, for some reason, you cannot join the group until after 6:00 p.m., you will have to come directly to the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College. Directions are enclosed.

All the arrangements have been made for you to receive home hospitality at the following homes:

Barry Holtz	-	Jeffrey Dekro
Susan Handelman	-	Susannah Heschel
David Roskies	-	Louie and Steve Asher
Max Ticktin	-	Arthur Waskow
		(if desired)

If I can be of any help as you finalize your plans, please let me know. I look forward to meeting you on Sunday, May 19!

MAKING IT NEW: AMERICAN JEWISH POETS ENCOUNTER THEIR ROOTS

Selected Reading List - Books in Print

1. Allen Ginsberg, Collected Poems 1947-1980, Harper & Row 1984
2. Louise Gluck, The House on Marshland, The Ecco Press 1976
Descending Figure, The Ecco Press 1981
Firstborn, The Ecco Press 1983
3. Stanley Kunitz, Poems of Stanley Kunitz 1928-1978, Atlantic Monthly
Press 1979
The Wellfleet Whale and Companion Poems, Sheep Meadow
1983
4. Linda Pastan, The 5 Stages of Grief, Norton 1978
Waiting for My Life, Norton 1981
PM/AM: New and Selected Poems, Norton 1982
5. Gerald Stern, The Red Coal, Houghton Mifflin 1981
Rejoicings, Metro Books 1983
Paradise Poems, Random House 1984
6. C.K. Williams, Tar, Random House 1983
The Lark, the Thrush, the Starling, Burning Deck 1983