 Subj: Wednesday Night News

David: It's close to midnight here and I've had one hell of a day. I just wrote you a long report called "Wednesday Night News" and only upon sending it did I see that the system had "hiccupped." I typed your address correctly, (I checked the "instant replay" feature that COMIT has) but the system copied it as DAFISHMAN@THEO.JTtSA.EDU with a double "t." Hence, I'm not at all sure it went through.

Short form: Please provide precise arrival info for Kassow\Roskies. I DON'T have flight details. Vlasova is OPPOSED to any arrivals prior to completion of the work. I don't know if that means she'll block Kniazkov's housing requests. The work MAY be finished in time. It may not quite be. We have promises, but we all know what they're worth. At best, they'll have to live with surrounding noise, shellac and paint odors and a high level of dust from the work around them even if their rooms are done. At worst, they may have to live for a few days at least on the first or fifth floors in singles (two for Roskies).

 The glavni engineer and komendant are both exceedingly unhappy with the quality of the work and I can see why. It's not of the quality of the fourth floor.

Let them come. If Roskies and Kassow are at all flexible we'll be OK. As always, we'll try to be helpful. The ikkar is that we'd best get this semester underway. Kassow will barely have time to get going before he leaves as is!

Anya Levitova this evening organized a group of students and the library move, to my amazement, was nearly completed in organized fashion. Efficient and remarkably poryadochno, as they say. Kol hakavod to Anya and the others.

The NIKOLSKAYA OOfoffice move should be possible this week>. The techtechies did a marvelous job. TTOOStarostin seems to agree that they're effective and honest>, despite their wish lists. Even in that regard, they DO accept no as an answer.

Gotta sleep and maybe you did receive the original message after all? Yehiel.
