Subject: RE: <Minyan M'at Email> These Letters of Mine

Status: Urgent New

Dear David,

I still never understand why people make a big deal about receiving emails they don't want. I never found pushing the delete key so hard. In any event, I find your emails very reassuring at a moment that alot of pressure is being placed on us to bring Yona home. Not because you make it sound peaceful. It's not. However you and your son are in Jerusalem and you're not running. Yona is at Kibbutz Saad and I figure the odds are very much on her side too.

Keep the emails coming and if there's a day that I'm too busy too read one, forgive me I'll hit the delete key.

All the best and return in shalom.
Janet
