Dear David:

I am delighted that you have chosen to join us at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College for "Making it New: American Jewish Poets Confront Traditional Texts." It occurs to me that the poets would benefit from reading some Jewish books in advance of the conference. What could be more appropriate than books by the participating scholars.

Would it be possible for you to arrange with your publisher to send out six complimentary copies of your book,* one to each poet on the enclosed list. If you could explain to the publisher the nature of our project, they might be glad to participate. I might add that we hope to have many copies of your ^{reference} book available at the public programs.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Nancy
