Dear David:

I use an opportunity to send you two books: of the Jewish painter Meer Axelrod (he was a husband of Yiddish writer Rivkah Rubin) and poems of young (he is about 50) soviet Yiddish poet Lew Berinsky. May be it is for some reason interesting for you.

I have written you a length letter, but probably you did not receive it yet - I mailed it. Please, if it does not require special efforts from you, send me an issue of "Prooftexts" devoted to S.Y. Agnon. It is so important for me, because now they want to publish translations of his works (it is not clear yet which), and I would like to write an introductory article (and maybe to make a translation as well). And also write me please an address of Itamar Even-Zohar (hasifrut) and of Klone Shmeruk.

Yours sincerely Michael Krut'ka
