Welcome to the Roskies family! Where did they end up living?
I hope you've discussed domestic matters, and that David is ready to get down to work.

As for your work, I think the highest priorities are:

1. Getting the Nikolskaya office and Judaica library ready for use. (I.e. tell those students to bring their screw-drivers).
2. Get publicity going on the new program we're opening next year -
through the va'ad and other media.
(otherwise we won't have good applicants.)
3. Replacing Slava with a better and cheaper driver.

I assume Roskies and Shulman will meet tomorrow, Tuesday.
Shulman should know that his classes are a real course. He will give an exam at the end of the term, and will grade the students.
He can require of them whatever he thinks he should.

<Return> for more, (Q)uit:

Everybody should take attendance. The new rules are in effect. Miss 1/4 of classes - and you're penalized one full Russian grade. Please ask Dovid to reiterate this in class.

I'm eagerly awaiting your "more to come".

David
