

VIII Congress of the European Association for Jewish Studies
Past and Present Perspectives in Jewish Studies
Moscow 23-27 July 2006

Dear Prof. Koskies,

On Friday, if the trip is cancelled, you might order the tour of the monasteries. The tour lasts for 3 hours approximately, the price is 620 rub./per hour.

You might take a subway, if you take a car (on Sunday it's not that difficult to move in a car across Moscow), it costs additional 620 rub./per hour. You will also have to pay for entrance tickets (within 150-400 rub. range, depending on each monastery).

Should you like to book this tour, they will ask for ~~some~~ prepayment that must be done on Friday or Saturday. I can arrange this, just remember that on Friday I give a class from 12 till 14.

My plans for today are as follows: to do as much as possible (apply for a visa, pay a visit to the Gershom Publishing House, take my skirt back from a schneider and go to the ulpan around 6³⁰p.m., etc. etc.) but I don't know what comes first and what comes next, a lot depends on the time when your food is delivered.

So, I don't know yet about lighting the candles, but we will definitely have your phone card refilled today, get the money ready 😊😊

Yours,
Sonya
