Dear Dovid, don't know if this will actually reach you, or if you will even have time to read it if it does. With much fascination I've been reading your e-mails thanks to Janet Burstein. One I hope you won't mind my commenting on. "Not to worry. Nurit is in Auschwitz" strikes me as the ironic heart of everything you are observing and noting now. What a wonderful title that would make for a book about your and friends' and neighbors' experiences during these hideous terrorist attacks in what we all thought was forever post-Auschwitz Israel.

All my good wishes to you, Shana, Aryeh, and to all of you--be well, be well, and safe, safe.

Love, Norma
